Tells Envoys He Can't Interfere in Transvaal War.

WASHINGTON, May 22.—Monsieur Fischer, Wessels and Wolmarans, the three Boer envoys, visited the White House today to pay their respects to the President.

No official status was given the visitors, and they presented no credentials. The envoys were received in the Blue Parlor, no one being present but themselves, the President and Secretary Coffey.

At first the conversation touched upon a variety of subjects. The Boers talked about Washington, told how they admired the city, and the President escorted them to the porch at the rear of the Executive Mansion, where a splendid view is obtainable of the Washington Monument and the Potomac River.

President Kruger's name finally was mentioned and the visitors then stated their purpose in coming to this country. They said they understood that what Secretary May had told yesterday was final, and that the position of the United States was that this country could not interfere in the present struggle in South Africa.

The President confirmed this view. He said that the action he took some time ago when, at the request of the Government of the Transvaal, he offered his good offices to England to bring about peace, he did with great pleasure in the hope that it might possibly bring the conflict to an end.

This offer had been declined by Great Britain, and he said there was nothing further that the United States could do in the premises.

The envoys intimated that they were glad to find that the United States was in the same position as the President's country and then made the President goodbye.

MORRIS PARK WINNERS; MISSIONARY'S POCANTICO.

Rinaldo Captured the First Event from Bon Jour—Sport Improved by Fine Weather.

SPECIAL to the Evening World. RACE TRACK, MORRIS PARK, May 22.—A fine day for the racing, with a breeze and sunny weather, turned up at Westchester again this afternoon after a week's absence. The weather was well suited for the crowd, which was fairly well filled with spectators, and the racing was of a high standard.

The card was fairly attractive and the attendance of the week was the result. The Pocantico Handicap, for three-year-olds, and the Amateur Cup were the features. The horses in the race for the Amateur Cup were to be ridden by gentlemen riders, and up to the time of the first race there were no withdrawals.

Races of the sort are necessary just to make the public appreciate the difference between the professional jockey and the amateur. The track was in good shape, though a little stiff under the hoofs of the horses.

It might be termed a slow track. The first race—Seven furlongs—won by Rinaldo, Bon Jour was second and Dandolo third.

Talent Picked First Winner.

The racing started at 2 o'clock. Mr. Rinaldo, a three-year-old, was the favorite. He was a well-bred horse, and his jockey, Mr. Rinaldo, was a well-known talent. He won the race easily, and his time was 1:20 1/4.

The second race, for three-year-olds, was won by Dandolo, a well-bred horse, and his jockey, Mr. Dandolo, was a well-known talent. He won the race easily, and his time was 1:20 1/4.

The third race, for three-year-olds, was won by Bon Jour, a well-bred horse, and his jockey, Mr. Bon Jour, was a well-known talent. He won the race easily, and his time was 1:20 1/4.

Handwork Beats Out Golden Age.

In the second Handicap, a very strong tip-off was given by the fact that Handwork was the favorite. He was a well-bred horse, and his jockey, Mr. Handwork, was a well-known talent. He won the race easily, and his time was 1:20 1/4.

The third race, for three-year-olds, was won by Golden Age, a well-bred horse, and his jockey, Mr. Golden Age, was a well-known talent. He won the race easily, and his time was 1:20 1/4.

Jackie Walsh Shaken Up.

The third race was another dash for two-year-olds. Again, Mr. Jackie Walsh was the favorite. He was a well-bred horse, and his jockey, Mr. Jackie Walsh, was a well-known talent. He won the race easily, and his time was 1:20 1/4.

The fourth race, for three-year-olds, was won by Dandolo, a well-bred horse, and his jockey, Mr. Dandolo, was a well-known talent. He won the race easily, and his time was 1:20 1/4.

Toddy Stopped Badly.

The Pocantico Handicap brought out a field of five, with Toddy as the favorite. He was a well-bred horse, and his jockey, Mr. Toddy, was a well-known talent. He won the race easily, and his time was 1:20 1/4.

The fifth race, for three-year-olds, was won by Dandolo, a well-bred horse, and his jockey, Mr. Dandolo, was a well-known talent. He won the race easily, and his time was 1:20 1/4.

RUSIE IS NEEDED NOW.

Rusie could have joined the team in Chicago, as he was expected to do, but it appears in the light of the situation that he is not needed now.

The sixth race, for three-year-olds, was won by Dandolo, a well-bred horse, and his jockey, Mr. Dandolo, was a well-known talent. He won the race easily, and his time was 1:20 1/4.

NEWPORT WINNERS.

RACE TRACK, NEWPORT, May 22.—The races scheduled to be run here today resulted as follows:

First Race—Seven furlongs of a mile. Won by Dandolo, a well-bred horse, and his jockey, Mr. Dandolo, was a well-known talent. He won the race easily, and his time was 1:20 1/4.

RESULTS AT ST. LOUIS.

First Race—Seven furlongs of a mile. Won by Dandolo, a well-bred horse, and his jockey, Mr. Dandolo, was a well-known talent. He won the race easily, and his time was 1:20 1/4.

BETTING ON THE WEATHER.

It was one of the dullest days of the Westchester meeting yesterday. The card was not too good in its original form and after the withdrawals had been made it was only a skeleton of its former self. The weather was much more interesting than the racing. The crowd found amusement in betting how much time there would be between showers or how long the sunshine would last.

STANDING'S VICTORY.

The feature of the day was perhaps the victory of Standing. Every one had a tip on the three-year-old. People heard it everywhere on the way to the track, and where every one has a tip on the three-year-old. People heard it everywhere on the way to the track, and where every one has a tip on the three-year-old.

DOHENY WOULD ASCEND.

DOHENY showed his command of the situation superbly in the fourth race, when he was invited to take an honorary trip. He coolly let Poirer to first on the track, then he let Dandolo to first on the track, then he let Dandolo to first on the track.
